The course is open to overseas students enrolled at Hokkaido University with a student visa (research students / kenkyusei, graduate students, special auditing students, and special research students) and overseas teaching and research staff. Auditors, undergraduate students, and credited auditors are not eligible to apply. Undergraduate students are only eligible to take the Business Japanese class.

Applications:

All applicants for the General Japanese Course should submit an application through the website (http://www.oia.hokudai.ac.jp/current-students/japanese-language-support/what-class-is-right-for-me/).

Intensive Japanese Course

*for Monbukagakusho Scholarship students, and self-financed / self-supported students

This course aims at helping Monbukagakusho Scholarship students at the graduate level and in teacher training programs develop an understanding and proficiency in the Japanese language before they enroll in graduate programs.

Classes offered:

Elementary Grammar, Elementary Conversation, Elementary Kanji, Elementary Reading Comprehension, Elementary Writing, and Elementary Listening Comprehension and Pronunciation

Length of course: 16 weeks

Eliaibility:

This course is mainly for research students on Monbukagakusho scholarships recommended by Hokkaido University; however, privately-financed research students may also be admitted if there are vacancies.

Academic Japanese Course

The International Student Center (ISC) offers Academic Japanese classes for overseas students, teaching, and research staff as outlined below:

Objective

This "cooperative active learning course" centers on exchanges between Japanese students and international students via course topics in order to increase vocabulary and understanding while heightening skills that are necessary in the University environment. As such, the course does not emphasize learning the Japanese language so much as concentrate on learning from one another. To this end, active and independent involvement is sought.

Eligibility:

Prospective students must fulfill the following two requirements:

1) Be officially enrolled in the University as either an international student (holders of international student visas: research students, graduate students, special auditing students, special research students); or have status as an international faculty member, or international researcher. Auditing students, credited auditors, and international undergraduate students can not apply; however, international undergraduate students can apply under General Education Seminar: Multicultural Exchange
2) Japanese language ability must be at advanced or above

Application and Placement Test Information:

Persons wishing to enroll in the Academic Japanese Course must take the placement test. To apply online, and for more information, please visit the following link: (http://www.oia.hokudai.ac.jp/current-students/japanese-language-support/what-class-is-right-for-me/).

General Education: Japanese Language and Affairs

*for Monbukagakusho Scholarship students

This credited class is offered to international students enrolled in a HU faculty that endeavor to raise their Japanese language ability beyond the University's Japanese language requirement.
